Company Name

Growth

THE GYM LIMITED

240.8%

The Gym Group opened its first gym in 2008 and has steadily grown each year. It now operates from 78 sites in major towns and cities across the UK and is on track to open a further 15-20 gyms in 2016. The company has been funded and supported by Bridges Ventures and Phoenix Equity Partners through to its successful IPO in November 2015. The key drivers for The Gym Group are to offer value for money gyms, without long term contracts, which are open 24/7 to meet demand. In recent years the Group has won several awards for excellence, best practice and innovation. In May 2016, The Gym Group claimed another fitness industry first after attaining Gold status from Investors in People, joining the top 7% of accredited organisations across the UK.

DAMIA GROUP LIMITED

199.9%

Damia Group provides clients and candidates alike with a professional yet personal solution to specialist IT, engineering and security cleared recruitment. Focused on understanding company cultures and client personalities, its strategy to connect the right people in the right way creates long-lasting professional relationships that reward both parties. The company's expert team, efficient processes and proven track record make it the preferred recruitment specialist for businesses across the UK and internationally. From SME's to large corporate organisations, Damia Group's approach delivers results and ensures its client retention rate remains exceptionally high.

LOWERY LIMITED

168.1%

Lowery Ltd is the principal operating company within the Lowery Group, gaining a reputation for quality and service in over 60 years of civil engineering. Lowery has undertaken civil engineering work of all types, always responding to market changes and developments. It currently focuses its activities in the rail and power sectors, offering its customers proven experience and knowledge. Its principal geographic areas of activity are across the South of England. Head Office is located geographically central to its area of operations, at Chertsey, with outlying offices to support its ongoing major projects. Lowery has always sought to develop long term relationships with its customers. The success of this strategy has ensured repeat business from customers who value its proven capabilities and performance.
